Synopsis : Denton Police arrested Paige Young, 19 of Ridgely for assault. Police observed a 2009 Dodge sitting on the side of the road on Shore Highway in the area of Camp Road with its emergency flashers activated. Police stopped to lend assistance and found Young standing outside the vehicle. Young stated that she had run out of gas. Police requested identification and Young advised she did not have any. Young then got into the vehicle and started it. Police again requested that ID and the vehicle's registration. Young produced a rental agreement for the vehicle which she was not listed as an authorized operator. Police then requested that Young exit the vehicle at which time Young locked the doors and started to roll up the window. Police were able to unlock the doors and had to struggle with Young to get her out of the car. At one point Young extinguished a lit cigarette on one of the officer's uniform shirt, burning a hole in it, and threw a book at the officers. Young was eventually taken into custody and charged with assault 2nd degree, MDOP, resisting arrest and violating a vehicle rental agreement. Young was ordered held at the Caroline County Detention Center on $7,500.00 bail after an initial appearance hearing before a District Court Commissioner.

Synopsis : Denton Police arrested Marvin Ramirez, 22 of Easton, for suspicion of DUI. Police were conducting traffic control at the Denton Fire Company when they observed a 1995 Ford pull into the rear parking lot, Ramirez exit the driver's seat and fall to the ground. Police checked on Ramirez's welfare and noticed a strong odor of alcoholic beverage about his breath and person. Police then advised Ramirez he could not drive and attempted to get him a ride but he refused. Ramirez then got back into the vehicle and attempted to drive away. Police removed Ramirez from the vehicle and requested his driver's license and he could not produce one. Ramirez was unable to perform standard field sobriety tests and was placed under arrest for suspicion of DUI. A check of MVA records revealed that Ramirez did not have driver's license. Ramirez elected to take a breath test, the results of which were .21 grams of alcohol per 210 liters of breath (legally intoxicated in MD is .08). Ramirez was ordered released on his own recognizance after an initial appearance hearing before a District Court Commissioner.
